Dear Applicant:

In response to your inquiry, enclosed please find the application paperwork for JenksWoods Apartments located on Flat Street in Cumberland RI. JenksWoods Apartments is a 61-unit development financed under the HUD Section 202 program. These apartments are one bedroom only with a limited number of wheelchair accessible units. JenksWoods is a three-story building with units measuring approximately 540 square feet. Heat and hot water are included; residents will be responsible for paying for their electricity, however they will receive an allowance to help defray this expense. Phone service and cable TV will be the financial responsibility of the residents.

Income eligibility is based on the total gross household income, which must be less than $39,350 for a single member household and less than $45,000 for a two-member household. A certification worksheet is enclosed to assist you in determining all sources of income used to determine your eligibility. At least one household member must be 62 years of age or older.

Applicant may be declined due to negative credit history, criminal history, or a negative landlord reference; applicants must provide at least 5 years of landlord history. Our Resident Selection policy is available at our office that included additional specific eligibility requirements and is available upon request. Also, please review the reverse side of this letter for added information concerning reasonable accommodation, LEP, VAWA, and Section 504.

If you would like to apply to live at JenksWoods Apartments please complete the enclosed application packet and the additional forms and return them to the address above. Following a preliminary determination regarding your eligibility you will be notified by mail of the results. If you appear to be eligible, you will be placed on the appropriate wait list and notified when we anticipate having an apartment for you. If you have any questions or require assistance applying for an apartment at JenksWoods please contact us at the number listed above.

Sincerely,

JenksWoods Apartments Property Manager

504, LEP, VAWA Notice

- A change in the rule or policies or services or how we do things that would give you an equal chance to live here and use the facilities or take part in programs on site,
- A change in your apartment or a special type of apartment that would give you an equal chance to live here and use the facilities or take part in programs on site,
- A change to some other part of the housing site that would give you an equal chance for you to live here and use the facilities or take part in programs on site,
- A change in the way we communicate with you or give you information.

If you know that you have a disability or you can show that you have a disability and if your request is reasonable (does not pose "an undue financial and administrative burden," and does not require a fundamental change in the nature of the program), we will try to make the changes you request.

If you need help filling out a REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION REQUEST FORM OR IF YOU WANT TO GIVE US YOUR REQUEST IN SOME OTHER WAY, WE WILL HELP YOU. You can obtain a reasonable accommodation form by contacting the property manager.

Note: All information you provide will be kept confidential and be used only to help you have an equal opportunity to enjoy your housing and the common areas.

Limited English Proficient (LEP)

Pinnacle Property Management is committed to complying with all civil rights laws, including Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Title VI), which requires us to make sure individuals with LEP have meaningful access to our housing programs and activities. In order to be able to provide language assistance, we need to identify who needs the assistance. All applicants will be asked if they need language assistance. Language Identification Flashcard is used to help identify specific language needs.

VAWA (Violence Against Women Act)

VAWA provides protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. VAWA protections are not only available for women, but are available equally to all individuals regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation. If you otherwise qualify for assistance, you cannot be denied admission or denied assistance because you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. VAWA protections are also provided to affiliated persons which includes

- A spouse, parent, brother, sister, or child of the victim, or a person to whom the victim stands in the place of a parent or guardian (for example, the affiliated individual is a person in the care, custody, or control of the victim); or
- Any individual, resident/applicant, or lawful occupant living in the household of that individual.

VAWA protections are not provided to guests, unauthorized residents or service providers (including live-in aides) hired by the resident.

If you wish to exercise your rights under VAWA, please contact the property manager.

The information collection requirements contained in this form were submitted to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501-3520). The public reporting burden is estimated at 15 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Section 644 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992 (42 U.S.C. 13604) imposed on HUD the obligation to require housing providers participating in HUD's assisted housing programs to provide any individual or family applying for occupancy in HUD-assisted housing with the option to include in the application for occupancy the name, address, telephone number, and other relevant information of a family member, friend, or person associated with a social, health, advocacy, or similar organization. The objective of providing such information is to facilitate contact by the housing provider with the person or organization identified by the tenant to assist in providing any delivery of services or special care to the tenant and assist with resolving any tenancy issues arising during the tenancy of such tenant. This supplemental application information is to be maintained by the housing provider and maintained as confidential information. Providing the information is basic to the operations of the HUD Assisted-Housing Program and is voluntary. It supports statutory requirements and program and management controls that prevent fraud, waste and mismanagement. In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act, an agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information, unless the collection displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Privacy Statement: Public Law 102-550, authorizes the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to collect all the information (except the Social Security Number (SSN)) which will be used by HUD to protect disbursement data from fraudulent actions.
